2-3 clave

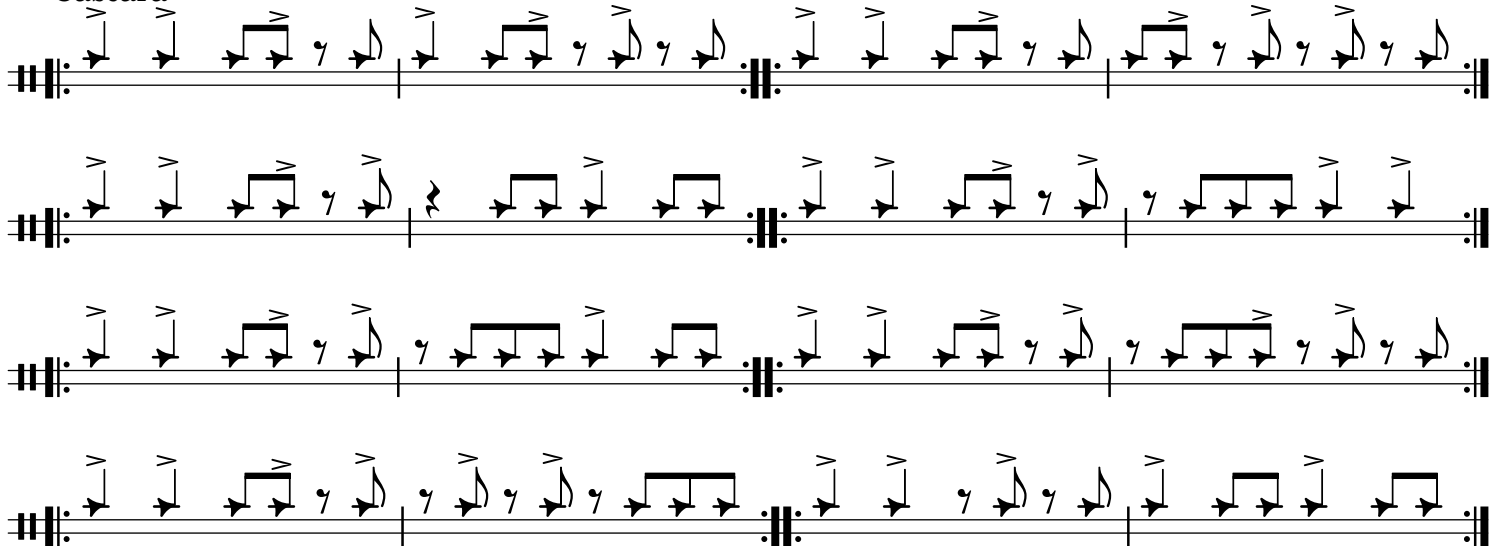

Timbales 2-3 clave patterns. The notation is on a single staff with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a common time signature (C). The patterns are divided into measures by vertical bar lines. The notation includes various rhythmic symbols such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and rests, often with accents (v) above them. The patterns are organized into measures, with some measures containing multiple notes and others containing rests or specific rhythmic figures. The patterns are repeated across multiple lines of notation.

Mambo

The image displays eight staves of musical notation, each representing a different bell pattern. The notation is written on a five-line staff with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a common time signature (C). The patterns are composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and include various rests. The notation is written in a style that suggests a specific rhythmic interpretation, with some notes having a 'v' mark above them, possibly indicating a specific articulation or accent. The patterns are organized into measures by vertical bar lines, and each staff ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. The patterns vary in complexity, with some featuring longer runs of beamed notes and others having more frequent rests.

Solo concepts

Timbales

The image displays a series of musical staves for timbales, organized into two main sections. The first section, titled "Solo concepts", contains five staves of music. The first staff is in 3/4 time and features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and triplets. The subsequent four staves are in 2/4 time and focus on triplet exercises, with each measure containing a triplet of eighth notes. The second section, titled "2-3 clave", also consists of four staves in 2/4 time, each dedicated to a specific triplet exercise. The notation includes rhythmic values, rests, and triplet markings (a '3' over a bracketed group of notes) to indicate the timing and structure of the exercises.
